Conference

Engaging Early Years: Galleries, Creativity and The Foundation Phase

11th March 2008,
Aberystwyth Arts Centre
10am–4pm

engage in the visual arts

Supported by The National Lottery through the Arts Council of Wales engage is the leading international association for gallery educators, artist educators and other art and education professionals with a growing membership around the world: a powerful network working face to face with millions of gallery visitors. engage Cymru responds to training, networking and advocacy needs within gallery education with a Welsh focus.

engage Cymru has been working with several local authorities on exciting pilot research projects across Wales within nursery settings to explore what artists and galleries can offer children in the Foundation Phase. Research reveals that galleries are able to offer fantastic starting points for all areas of the Foundation Phase.

Who is the conference for:

Gallery educators, artist educators, early years professionals; arts development officers; language & play co-ordinators and others involved in the arts and education sectors.

The aim of the conference is to:

- disseminate findings of engage Cymru early years pilot research projects
- share good practice
- explore sustainable development of best practice in working creatively with early years settings and the Foundation Phase
- develop links between arts and education sectors.

Speakers include:

Morfudd Roberts, Foundation Phase Advisor, Children & Safeguards Team, Welsh Assembly Government; Fiona Godfrey, Arts Education Consultant; Children and Young People Service, Wrexham and Deirdre Buckley, Craftspace Touring.

The conference will include a mix of presentations and breakout sessions. Price includes copy of bilingual report from research projects, a buffet lunch and refreshments.

Cost:

£45 non-engage members
£40 engage institutional members
£35 engage concessionary rate, including freelance practitioners engage yw'r gymdeithas ryngwladol flaengar ar gyfer addysgwyr orielau, addysgwyr artistiaid a gweithwyr proffesiynol celf ac addysg eraill, ac mae ganddi aelodaeth gynyddol o gwmpas y byd: mae'n rhwydwaith pwerus sy'n gweithio wyneb yn wyneb â miliynau o ymwelwyr orielau. Mae engage Cymru'n bodloni anghenion hyfforddiant, rhwydweithio ac eiriolaeth mewn addysg oriel gyda chanolbwynt Cymreig.

Mae engage Cymru wedi bod yn gweithio gyda sawl awdurdod lleol ar brosiectau ymchwil arbrofol ar draws Cymru mewn sefydliadau meithrinfa i archwilio beth mae orielau ac artistiaid yn gallu ei gynnig i blant yn y Cyfnod Sylfaen. Mae ymchwil yn datgelu y gall orielau gynnig mannau dechrau penigamp ar gyfer pob maes o'r Cyfnod Sylfaen.

Ar gyfer pwy mae'r gynhadledd:

Addysgwyr orielau, addysgwyr artistiaid, gweithwyr proffesiynol y blynyddoedd cynnar; swyddogion datblygu'r celfyddydau; cydlynwyr iaith a chwarae ac eraill sy'n ymwneud â'r celfyddydau a sectorau addysg.

Nod y gynhadledd yw:

- lledu canfyddiadau prosiectau ymchwil arbrofol engage Cymru
- rhannu arfer da
- archwilio i ddatblygiad cynaliadwy o arfer da wrth weithio'n greadigol gyda sefydliadau'r blynyddoedd cynnar a'r Cyfnod Sylfaen
- datblygu cysylltiadau rhwng y celfyddydau a sectorau addysg.

Mae siaradwyr yn cynnwys:

Morfudd Roberts, Cynghorydd y Cyfnod Sylfaen, Tîm Plant a Diogelwch, Llywodraeth Cynulliad Cymru; Fiona Godfrey, Ymgynghorydd y Celfyddydau ac Addysg; Gwasanaeth Plant a Phobl Infanc, Wrecsam, a Deirdre Buckley, Craftspace Touring.

Bydd y gynhadledd yn cynnwys cymysgedd o gyflwyniadau a sesiynau torri allan. Mae'r pris yn cynnwys copi o'r adroddiad dwyieithog ar y prosiectau ymchwil, cinio bwffe a lluniaeth.
